

SOURCE

Soutenabilité et résilience

Towards an equitable and open Global North-South research community (CREONS)

*Vers une communauté de recherche équitable et ouverte
entre les Nords et les Suds (CREONS)*

International Workshop / Atelier international

UMI SOURCE

December 12th 2025 / 12 décembre 2025

Université de Versailles St Quentin en Yvelines

47 Bd Vauban Salle mezzanine 78047 GUYANCOURT

France

This workshop will bring together a wider group of key contributors to the ANR CREONS consortium such as Gaëlle Gillot (Assistant Professor of Geography, University of Paris 1), Rima Hawi (Professor of Economics, UMI SOURCE / University of Paris-Saclay), Ravaka A. Randrianandrasana (PhD Candidate in Economics, UMI SOURCE / University of Antananarivo), Thierry Razanakoto (Assistant Professor of Economics, UMI SOURCE / University of Antananarivo), Ndickou Gaye (Assistant Professor of Geography, UMI SOURCE / Cheikh Anta Diop University), Sandrine Paillard (Economist of Science and Innovation, Future Earth / CNRS), Anouk Barberousse (Professor of Philosophy of Science, Sorbonne University), Alexandre Mathieu (Postdoctoral Researcher in the Political Economy of Science, UMI SOURCE / University of Paris-Saclay), and Holimalala M. Randriamanampisoa (Assistant Professor of Economics, UMI SOURCE / University of Antananarivo). Additional institutional partners involved in the CREONS consortium are also expected to attend.

Vendredi 12 décembre
8h30 – 9h30	Accueil
9h30 – 10h00	Introductory presentation: The CREONS research program – first steps of the French ANR project . Brief overview of the key questions guiding the day.
10h00 – 11h00	Ernest Aigner (SESI, Leuphana University Lüneburg, Germany), presentation followed by discussion How do we measure research inequalities? (Debate on the idea of an “academic poverty traps”)
11h00 – 11h30	Coffee break
11h30 – 12h30	David Mills (Center of Global Higher Education, University of Oxford) presentation followed by discussion Just transition in research?
12h30 – 14h00	Lunch
14h00 – 15h30	Round table 1 : ANR perspective
15h30 – 16h00	Coffee break
16h00 – 17h00	Round table 2 : European perspective